

PHOTOS from the field

Ribbon cutting ▶

Cedric Williams (left) cuts the ribbon with Emma Chamberlayne (right) at the opening of a new addition to the Aukumm Elementary School - a new kindergarten. Teachers and students were on hand in Wiesbaden, June 4, to celebrate the school's 'Spirit Day' and to open the two-classroom facility. It was managed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Europe District, the Hessisches Baumanagement (HBM), and contractor d+b Bau.

Photo by Capt. Ed Chamberlayne

◀ Israeli tour

Employees and family members of the Israel Program Office tour one of the new barracks buildings at the Northern Infantry Training Base near Tel Aviv, Israel. The base, a $32-million project managed by Europe District for the Golani Brigade of the Israeli Defense Forces, was turned over during a ribbon cutting ceremony in May.

Photo by Brian H. Temple

Grand opening ▶

Ron McPeters (left), shows Lt. Gen. Robert Flowers, commander, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the overall scope of the Nachshonim Storage Base near Tel Aviv, Israel. Although Flowers visited Israel to attend the opening of the Northern Infantry Training Base, he took time out to visit other projects. Nachshonim is one of the many projects being managed by Europe District under the 1998 Wye River Memorandum.

Photo by Brian H. Temple